

'Christmas Joy' for many in need of kindness

Rotary Club of Sylvania Tree of Joy at Caringbah Homemaker Centre has certainly brought the spirit of Christmas to young and old alike who are in need of some kindness this Christmas.

The tree of joy is also held in conjunction with a fundraising raffle which was shared between Sylvanvale Foundation and Sutherland Early Support Services, raising in excess of $3,500.

Sylvania Rotarians were overwhelmed with gifts. The local community truly embraced the season of gift giving with close to 400 gifts received.

The raffle was drawn by Caringbah Homemaker Centre, centre manager, Michael Read winners are: Leonie Bedford, Carol Christodoulou, Hannah Bush, Adam Perrett.

Have you thought about becoming a part of the rotary family where you can help with such wonderful causes as the Tree of Joy. Call Jennifer Turville 0419 528 422.

Photo: Rotarians from Sylvania Rotary with centre manager of Caringbah Homemaker Centre. Left to right: Keith Stone, David Martin, Laurna Stone, Margaret Driver, Michael Read, Jennifer Turville, Magdi Mikhail.

For more information please contact Jennifer Turville – 0419 528 422